THE NEW PRICE LIST 2012-2013

After the Summer break, as usual, the new “philatelic season” 2012-2013 starts.

How will it be? By having a look at the new editions of catalogues, one gets the idea that quite nothing has changed. But do catalogues represent reality? Only sometimes. Since many years, yet, it has been clear that ONLY the market is a reference, and collectors know this well.

PRICES IN THIS PRICE LIST, net and fixed following a careful analysis of sales and auction returns, reflect the market, which is not brilliant, for sure, and everybody knows why.

However, after 35 years of activity (the opening of “Studio filatelico Paolo Vaccari” dates back to 4 February 1977), the experience acquired makes us quite optimist, since world economy has been living a crises since 2008 and, historically, after some years, there has always been a change of trend.

That is why even for postage stamps and covers at present offered at low prices there will be a “revenge”, and those who have placed their trust in them and have continued to buy them will be awarded. The world is extremely globalized at present; therefore, it is really difficult to calculate in advance, but history and the succession of events are never wrong.

What presented in this new price list is divided into different sections.

The first one gathers the most common types of postage stamps for each issue of the Italian States and Kingdom of Italy up to 1900.

In the second one, the postage stamps of the Kingdom of Italy from 1900, and Republic of Italy with references to R.S.I., Regency and Italian offices abroad.

Then, mixed postage stamps and accessories for collecting.

For digital reading lovers, the catalogue can be browsed, just like a magazine, in the free site Issuu <http://issuu.com/vaccaristamps>, with no need of specific programs.

You can enlarge pages, skip them and search what you are looking for automatically, download the pdf file (a fast connection is necessary) and print what you wish.

Any update is regularly included in the site, where there are also other offers. Besides the postage stamps, unused and used, of the traditional section “Classics and Rarities”, it is possible to find promotional sales of Italian and foreign postage stamps at low prices, postal history with letters, covers, fragments and cancellations, from the Italian States to the Republic, with a wide choice of Kingdom of Italy, Occupations, Military mail and Italian Colonies. Within this last section, a new area is devoted to cancellations with specializations which are really interesting from a historical and collecting point of view.

In the site, new additions are indicated by “new” and thanks to “find new” all of them are gathered within their specific category. And only in the site it is possible to take advantage of the offers and discounts during the year.

The institutional site remains the main showcase for our products, but our Facebook page <http://www.facebook.com/VaccariFilatelia> gives you the possibility to see our events, the photographs of our activities, some collections exhibited, and much more.

Those who do not receive our communication e-mails and wish to be informed in real time, by e-mail, about our activities and offers during the year, can fill in the mailing list form (up right in our site).
