"You can't get very far until you start doing something for somebody else."
Melvin Jones (1879-1961)

"Tutti Insieme a Rovereto e S. Antonio Onlus" is a non-profit organization constituted in Rovereto sulla Secchia and S. Antonio (Mo - Italy), one of the areas most damaged by the earthquake of 20 and 29 May 2012, where the main buildings devoted to social and public functions have been destroyed and 60% of private houses heavily damaged. All local associations and 600 inhabitants are part of this Group.

objectives

The aim of the Association is that of helping reconstruction, in order to recreate all the functions which were in Rovereto before the earthquake. They present projects and organize events to collect the funds necessary to pay for the projects.

projects

Some projects have already been completed and others are in progress at present.

Among those under way, the building of one Multipurpose Centre for Services which should be completed by Spring 2013. The centre will host the town doctors, the town hall delegation, the paediatric consulting room, the Association of Voluntary Italian Blood Donors (AVIS), the medical examination booking offices.
