CHARITY INITIATIVE

for the Multipurpose Centre for Services “Val di Non”

Earthquake - The sale to help reconstruction

“State Service” and complete series of Sicily: both lots at Vaccari auction destined to help Rovereto and Sant’Antonio in Emilia have found their new owner Italo Balbo triptych, upper left corner of sheet, overprinted “Servizio di stato” (lot 1131) has passed from 900.00 to 2,800.00 euro. Then the series of Sicily, from 600.00 to 1,350.00 (lot 388).

These are the two lots selected for the charity initiative connected to Vaccari public auction. The net return is destined to help reconstruction of the areas in Emilia damaged by the earthquake of 20 and 29 May 2012. To receive the donation is the onlus Association “Tutti insieme a Rovereto e Sant’Antonio”, which operates in one of the most hit zones.

“Even 50.00 euro - the secretary, Venanzio Malavolta, says - are important. The highest amounts come from companies and societies, but the rest is formed by private offers. In the Association we are in 600, citizens of two towns with 4,000 inhabitants on the whole. Our experience has been growing and has become really important also for other groups”. The aim, at present, is that of finding the whole amount necessary to cover the costs for the construction of the Multipurpose Centre for Services. “The building site was opened on 2 January and the structure is now nearly finished; its inauguration will be on 29 June.”

Besides the present one, with charity initiatives connected to Vaccari auctions it has been possible to donate 20,700.00 euro. Starting from 2008, to AIRC, the Italian Association for Cancer Research, 3,800.00 euro. Then, to “Vip - Viviamo in positivo” of Modena, clowntherapy, 2,400.00 (in 2009), to Fondazione Francesca Rava 5,000.00 (in 2010), to ASEOP, the Paediatric Oncology Haematology Support Association onlus, 4,000.00 (in 2011) and to Ant Italia onlus 5,500.00 (in 2012).
