FOREWORD

The 1,287 lots that are knocked down at the public auction sale of Saturday 8 November are presented in catalogue no.86.

The first lots to be knocked down are the ones in the section devoted to Postcards; only those requested by people present at the sale will be auctioned off in the auction room. Then, the section devoted to Philately and Postal History. In pursuance of the public auction, the mail bids arrived within Friday 7 November (12.00 a.m. local time) are managed personally by Paolo Vaccari and considered together with those of people present, at the sale or on the phone (for lots with value over euro 1,000.00).

Starting prices are particularly interesting, since they take into consideration the present market situation. Moreover, no commission is applied to purchases made at Vaccari auctions (usually 20%). This aspect is very important and it must be borne in mind when deciding one's own "price ceiling" for a specific lot.

In Philately and Postal History, among the 836 lots proposed, items for any kind of collection can be found, both of high and low value, also of very good general importance. They start from Preadhesive and arrive up to present days, with the Old Italian States, Risorgimento, the Italian Kingdom, Italian Social Republic and Republic, but also foreign countries, destinations and mail to Italy, that is "Incoming Mail", Italian Post offices abroad, colonies, occupations and military, air mail. The chapters with Various subjects and Lots and Collections may give great surprises.

Among Lots, a specific collection (824) of military relevant to the correspondences of the Atlantic Base of Bordeaux.

The section of Philately ends up with Lot 836, that gathers a really peculiar collection, very interesting for the study of Postal history, the personal philatelic archive of Professor Vito Salierno, left as it was on the basis of his criteria of ordering and/or cataloguing, a really magnificent and useful set for scholars or collectors of images only.

This auction presents 451 lots in the section of Postcards, that give a general overview but focus mainly on Regionalism and Military.

All the Italian regions in 177 lots, where even small villages, municipal districts and hamlets are represented, to show how detailed the depiction of the Italian country is; in this group 174 items in small format. Numerous are the postcards of the same field also among Lots, a good 10 sets one can really enjoy.

In the range of Military, the "Special" Italian Alpini stands up with 160 lots among which some rarities are present. Peculiar is the military post-free, with 5 pieces of repiquage (1065-1069), and with 260 specimen of the corps of the Alpini (1275).

All the lots have been described (some of them also in English in the site) with the greatest care, in a clear and plain way. Moreover, the lots with the initials or signature P.V. or P.Vaccari on them, regardless of whether they come with or without an expert certificate, are absolutely guaranteed with reference to their description; this is a relevant factor in order to purchase in complete serenity. Among them, those with a value higher than 500.00 euro come with a Vaccari S.r.l. certificate of guarantee free of charge.

Reproductions are integral part of the description. Having the chance to see them is very important, above all to all those who do not have the opportunity to preview personally the lots of their own interest by Vaccari auction room from 5 November. The viewing of lots is also scheduled at Romafil, 24 to 26 October (Philately only, except bulky lots). (The lots purchased can be collected also at Veronafil on Friday 21 and Saturday 22 November.)

In the hardcopy catalogue, the numerous reproductions are included in the pages carrying the relevant descriptions.

All the lots (bulky ones excluded) are reproduced in the web site www.vaccari.it, in the page devoted to the auction, and images can be enlarged by simply clicking on them. Searching the items of interest, sending bids directly, consulting (once the auction is over) the list of possible lots unsold and available at the starting price, the auction returns: everything is very easy in the site.

Enlargements are possible also in the version to be browsed in the free site Issuu <http://issuu.com/vaccaristamps>, that gives the chance to make researches, to enlarge single parts, to download the pdf file on one's computer, to print single pages.

Moreover, the auction is present in Delcampe international site www.delcampe.net, in the Prestige section.
