FOREWORD

Auction of philately and postal history, public and live, but also by mail, fax, e-mail and internet: as usual, our auctions provide the possibility to participate in multiple ways according to one's own requirements and preferences.

On Saturday 9 November, starting from 10:00 a.m. local time, the public auction will take place by Vaccari auction room in Vignola and those who wish to attend personally will be welcome and will be able to make their own bids together with those who will be connected via the internet (live) or on the phone. Friday 8 November, 5:00 p.m. local time, is instead the deadline foreseen to register mail bids (that will come together with those of Saturday) and to apply for telephone bids (by mail, fax, e-mail and internet), and to subscribe to the live auction. However, all ways of participating are clearly stated in our terms of sale, that we advise to read carefully, in general.

In any case, in order to decide one's own bid and to purchase with confidence, it is very important to remember that, at Vaccari auctions, no commission is applied to buyers' return prices (generally 20/22%), and that the lots with my initials or signature, regardless of whether they come with or without an expert certificate, are absolutely guaranteed with reference to their description and, among them, those with a value higher than 500.00 euro come with a Vaccari S.r.l. certificate of guarantee free of charge.

The 1,352 lots displayed in this catalogue no.96, focused on the sectors that we have been representing for years and that reflect our specialisations, are described (some of them also in English in our site) with care and clarity but reproductions (numerous in the hardcopy version - all of them, only some bulky ones excluded, in our web-site www.vaccari.it) are integral part of descriptions. All the items can be viewed by our auction room upon appointment from Wednesday 6 November (Saturday 9 from 8:15 a.m. local time).

Some lots will be pointed out in our daily web magazine Vaccari news (www.vaccarinews.it) and in our social pages (facebook, linkedin, twitter, instagram), the institutional one VaccariFilatelia and the on-line VaccariShop.

But it is worth browsing the whole catalogue, where many lots are undoubtedly interesting from a philatelic and postal historical point of view, and where collectors can find what is of their own interest.

Anyway, here I point out some lots.

For Lombardy Venetia one letter (88) with the inside text from Venice to Revere of 17.8.1860 bearing a really rare tricolour franking; for the Kingdom of Naples and Naples Provinces, a particularly well represented section, one insured letter (175) from Ariano to Naples of 19.11.1860 with pair of 2 grana (III plate carmine) with gutter, defined by experts "first rate rarity", and one letter (193) from Tiriolo to Naples of 24.6.1861 with 2 grana blue of Naples Provinces, with floating "Annullato" (type 30) and circle (p.R3) alongside, of a very good quality.

Several postage stamps are quite prestigious. Among cancelled ones, lot 47 of Lombardy Venetia, lots 460, 504 and 505 for Tuscany. Among unused with original gum with hinge, lots 226 and 230 for the Papal State, 285 and 287 for Sardinia, 408 for Sicily.

Then, a large piece of a French newspaper of 1877 (1192) with c.1 black on Prussia blue, with Paris double circle cancellation in red, of a very good quality.

In the category of Air Mail, relevant is the section devoted to Zeppelin Mail, with the outward flight (with important lots), the round and the return flights of LZ 127 Graf Zeppelin Cruise in Italy of 1933, among which some rarities stand out (1043, 1060, 1068). Back again is Rocket Mail with 55 lots which give a high quality overview of the sector (ex collection Luigi Polo Friz) with the addition of three bulky lots (1076, 1093, 1126) which are really interesting and difficult to find. At the end, Space, with the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Moon landing with the cover "Moon Landing" (1142) and some Space letters with private Space-Earth mail.

The digital version of the hard-copy catalogue can be browsed in <http://issuu.com/vaccaristamps> and downloaded in a .pdf file from the page devoted to the auction in our site (www.vaccari.it/filatelista/asta). In both cases, specific researches can be easily made like in our site, where you can also send your bids directly. Once the auction is over, you will find the list of auction returns and possible lots unsold, that will be available at the starting price until 11 December.
