FOREWORD

The present catalogue n.100 displays philately and postal history as usual, but also a section devoted to philatelic literature. The 1,175 lots will be on sale at the auction of 11 June, public by our auction room, obviously respecting all the safety regulations relating to Covid-19 (see the devoted page).

Besides people in the auction room, there will be LIVE (two different platforms to choose) and telephone connections and bids received on the previous days.

We hope that everything will go in the best way; anyway, in case of problems, the auction will be held, even if behind closed doors.

To provide as complete a picture as possible, the lots have all been photographed, even though some of them only partially just to give an idea of the whole, and all the images are in the catalogue in the site.

Moreover, viewing of lots will start, upon appointment, already on Wednesday 11 May, by our offices in Vignola, and, on the occasion of Veronafil on Friday 20 and Saturday 21 May, by our stand (bulky lots in albums or boxes excluded - only on demand).

Friday 10 June, at 17 (local time), is the deadline for the registration of bids by mail and requests for a telephone connection (via mail, fax, e-mail or internet), and to register to take part Live.

Please read our terms of sale, where there is also how to take part in details.

I would like to remind you some points.

- Lots are described (some of them also in English in our site) with care and clarity and reproductions are integral part of descriptions.
- At Vaccari auctions, no commission is applied to buyers' return prices (generally 20/22%).
- The lots with my initials or signature, regardless of whether they come with or without an expert certificate, are absolutely guaranteed with reference to their description and, among them, those with a value higher than 500.00 euro come with a Vaccari S.r.l. certificate of guarantee free of charge.

Our daily web magazine Vaccari news (www.vaccarinews.it) and our social pages (facebook, linkedin, twitter, instagram), the institutional one VaccariFilatelia and the on-line VaccariShop, will point out some lots. Anyway, I suggest you browse the catalogue or search for what is of interest to you or you like the most personally.

The digital version of the hard-copy catalogue can be browsed and downloaded in a pdf file from the page devoted to the auction in our site (www.vaccari.it/filatelia/asta), where, once the auction is over, you will find the list of auction returns and possible lots unsold, available at the starting price until 7 July.

COVID-19 Information

Dear Customer,

at the time of preparation and printing of this catalogue we do not know what the situation will be like in the near term and during the auction day. Nor what any new rules for indoor environments could be.

Access to the room will only be allowed by appointment with registration of the name.

We therefore invite all those interested in attending the auction in Vignola in person to communicate it as soon as possible.

We consider it appropriate to use the FFP2 mask and the basic green pass will be checked (unless otherwise indicated at the time).

Vaccari will guarantee everyone strict compliance with the safety regulations established at regional and national level and by the company itself.

The auction will be publicly and live auctioned on Saturday 11 June.

As always, you can send bids through our website, by e-mail, by post or fax, or participate Live on the same day using the Bid Inside or Philasearch platform, or require a telephone connection to be held during the auction.

All requests must be received by Friday 10 June at 17 (local time).

If the situation does not allow it, the auction will be carried out behind closed doors only through live participation, by telephone and clearly all the correspondence bids received previously.

Any changes will be communicated in our site, in our information and social channels.

We wish everyone the best and we are confident that we can continue carrying out the auction in the best way.
