FEPA awards Certificate of Merit to Vaccari News on its 20th anniversary

On 8th March we had a video conference celebrating the 20th anniversary of Vaccari News. Besides Valeria Vaccari and Fabio Bonacina, respectively publisher and editor of this daily web news, among the presenters were Bruno Crevato-Selvaggi, President of the Italian Federation, Beniamino Bordoni, President of the Italian Union of Philatelic Press, and Giancarlo Morolli, Vice-President of FEPA. The latter presented the Certificate of Merit, that FEPA Board recently awarded to Vaccari News for 20 years of accomplishments and daily service to the philatelic community. In 20 years, the website has presented 25,475 news, concerning stamps, postal services and, more in general, postal enterprises and their relationships to the outside world. It has dealt with philatelic and postal exhibitions, societies, institutions, publications and trade, as well as with other external aspects related to them. All these news, supplemented with links to sources or previous news on the same subject, are available in a database managed with an effective search tool.
