FOREWORD

I cannot hide a certain satisfaction in presenting this new catalogue, no.102, which offers 885 lots of philately and postal history, sold in the E-live auction on Saturday 18 November.

There will be no presence in the room so I highly recommend the live connection from the Bid Inside portal where the auction will take place (information on page 6).

A good team effort made it possible to select a series of lots ranging from the Ancient Italian States, to the Kingdom, to the Republic, Trieste, Colonies, Occupations and Military Mail, Air Mail, Sea Routes, Postal Stationery and a part of foreign countries.

I would also like to point out a strong presence of Sicilian retouches and a nice collection of cancellations from Naples and the Naples Provinces, with interesting floating cancellations.

Friday 17 November, at 5 p.m. (local time), is the deadline for receiving offers by mail and for registering for the E-live auction. Send your mail bids as soon as possible, because for the same amount the one received first takes precedence.

I advise you to carefully read our Terms of Sale in general which clearly indicate all the ways to participate.

To provide as complete a picture as possible, the lots were all reproduced, even if some of them only partially to give an idea of the whole, and all the images are present in the catalogue on the site.

It will also be possible to view the lots individually by appointment starting from Tuesday 7 November, by our offices in Vignola, and in Milan upon request.

I would like to remind you some points:

- lots are described with care and clarity and reproductions are integral part of descriptions;
- at Vaccari auctions, no commission is applied to buyers' return prices;
- the lots with Paolo Vaccari initials or signature, regardless of whether they come with or without an expert certificate, are absolutely guaranteed with reference to their description and, among them, those with a value higher than 500.00 euro come with a Vaccari S.r.l. certificate of guarantee free of charge.

Our daily webmagazine Vaccari news (www.vaccarinews.it) and our social pages (Facebook, LinkedIn, X, Instagram), VaccariFilatelia (the institutional one) and VaccariShop (the online shop), will highlight some lots, but I suggest you browse the catalogue or do your own research to find what interests you or you like best personally.

The digital version of the paper catalogue can be browsed and downloaded as a PDF file from the page dedicated to the auction on our website (www.vaccari.it/filatelia/asta), where, once the auction is over, there will be the list of items sold and unsold items available at the base price until December 13th.

Thanks for participating and have fun!

Valeria Vaccari
