NEW AUCTION ROOM

Vaccari srl would like to inform you that next Vaccari public auction of 12 April will be held in the NEW AUCTION ROOM, which has been greatly enlarged and modernized. The premises have been divided in order to offer the best functionality and comfort during any step of the auction.

In a wide next room it will be possible to see the lots and to follow the auction at the same time. A new reception hall has been prepared too.

CHARITY INITIATIVE

Among the 1227 lots of philately and postal history and the 228 ones of philatelic literature, there are many interesting lots. Anyway, a PECULIAR INITIATIVE has to be announced.

For one of the lots, a Risorgimento relic connected to the third War for Independence, the net return will be assigned to CHARITY to A.I.R.C. (Italian Association for Cancer Research) and Vaccari srl will add a sum equal to the price realised at the auction. The details relevant to the deposit will be published. The name of the buyer will be notified at his/her discretion.

LOT 1029

Piece of paper with two postage stamps of Lombardy Venetia of 1864, one 5 soldi and one 3 soldi, which were stuck in order to form the Italian Tricolour. Someone, probably an Italian soldier, wrote that it was to remember the 1866 Campaign and that the stamps were Austrian examples bought in Padua on 18 July [1866]. (Padua was liberated on 12 July 1866.)
