

The “Philatelic Bookshop” no. 26

The libreriastorica.com is born

Two catalogues in one. This is the most important and new feature of the year. The “Philatelic Bookshop” has branched out into two sections: next to the postal world a completely new part has been introduced, dedicated to history, as well as the military, aviation and naval history...

In addition to the series by numerous publishers that we have been distributing for years, now expanded, the “History Bookshop” offers two centuries of history and military history. There are more than 400 titles and lots of new additions by major Italian publishers, which are categorized in historical order along with a selection of volumes including the most requested topics.

Just turn the catalogue upside down!

The “History Bookshop” website is now online at www.libreriastorica.com and will be regularly updated with new arrivals.

New publications from the “Philatelic Bookshop”

The “Philatelic Bookshop” will continue to offer a vast assortment of philatelic works, postal history, and collecting.

In the general part of this catalogue there are 539 titles with 66 new ones, the latest publications and all the new editions of the annual catalogues.

Not to be forgotten is the section of the 1x1 sale which offers 850 titles, new and used books on philately, Italian and foreign postal history, military post, maritime and air mail, magazines, catalogues, postal regulations and decrees.

There are also 58 books which are offered as a “free” gift and listed on pages 81 and 82: a significant promotion to award those who buy from our virtual shop or by mail.

The latest books published by Vaccari

Among the new titles published by us from the end of 2007, some volumes are particularly important. Considerable the work by Mario Mentaschi and Thomas Mathà. For the presentation of their collection they were given the Tilleard medal by the Royal Philatelic Society of London. Their work is entitled "Letter Mail from and to the Old Italian States 1850-1870"; it has been added to the series "History through documents" and was presented on the occasion of Milanofil on 8 March. It is the first volume to be published in Italy which discusses the postal routes and international rates for mail from and to the Old Italian States. It has been written in English so as to gain a wider audience at an international level.

The press release

In suite of the high demand and great success of "Letter Mail", which has gained recognition at a public level and at major international exhibitions, we have decided to proceed with the publication of "Corrispondenze da e per gli Antichi Stati Italiani 1850-1870", the Italian translation to accompany the original work.

In the series "Recoveries" the monograph "Ducato di Parma e Governo Provisorio. Raccolta di studi" has been added. It is a series of studies which give an in depth look at the issues of Parma, starting from the first works by the master of philately, Emilio Diena, and continuing with those by Paolo Vaccari, which are published as articles in the "Vaccari Magazine".

In the same series the monograph "I francobolli del Regno di Napoli e i due provvisori da mezzo tornese del 1860" is rightly considered Emilio Diena's masterpiece. With a new graphic layout, it is a reprint of the 1992 edition featuring a preface by Enzo Diena, which sold out long ago. Three plates reproducing the varieties of the 1/2 tornese Savoy Cross stamps are included in the volume.

The work in progress "Filatelica, la filatelia nel III millennio. Atti del secondo congresso nazionale" is a series of articles which cover the topics which were discussed during the meeting at the Rocca dei Bentivoglio in Bazzano (Bologna) on 14 and 15 June 2008. The collections exhibited on this occasion are also presented in this work.

Twenty years of the "Magazine"

www.vaccarimagazine.it

At Veronafil, in November, the fortieth issue of "Vaccari Magazine", the magazine of philatelic and postal history information, will be presented. Since the magazine is published on a six-monthly basis, twenty years have passed since the first issue, a turning point that will be celebrated during the convention. A free analytical index will be given to the magazine subscribers.

What's new on the websites

On the website www.vaccari.it there are a lot of new features. Today the majority of users have larger screens than in the past. So why not take advantage of this? We have “enlarged” our site. Even the homepage has been updated with new informative sections.

All the website sections are constantly updated, including the “Philatelic Bookshop” which in the hard copy version is published once a year. It has therefore become an essential instrument to stay informed about new products, publications coming soon or just published, new special sales or end of season sales that are only available on the website. If you send us your e-mail address (by filling in the form in the catalogue), we will keep you updated.

The online daily news “Vaccari news”, www.vaccarinews.it, has taken a further step towards becoming official and has been registered at the Modena Court on 4 December 2007. With more than five years online, it continues to provide news on the world of post and philately in real time. The journalist Fabio Bonacina, who has taken care of the news since he joined the team on 8 March 2003, is now the editor in chief.

If you visit the site you will see remarkable updates. A new homepage has been created in order to offer a more suitable support for our readers, with a subdivision of the news and the services available, even more user-friendly; even the search engine has been implemented.

Towards “Italia 2009”

It is time to go towards “Italia 2009”. Feverish preparations are being carried out for the international philately festival, a truly international event that will take place in Rome from 21 to 25 October 2009. It will be an occasion for those working in this field and enthusiasts from all over the world to meet.

Information is continually being updated at www.vaccarinews.it
