In the “1x1” sale section, second hand, new, ancient and rare books, magazines, catalogues, special offers and low prices, over 1200 titles with more than 800 new books.

There are also the new volumes signed “Vaccari”. No more mysteries for the Nineteenth century with “Catalogo Vaccari 2011-2012” at its XIV edition, after 20 years of publication, the first edition dating back to 1990, and after obtaining many national and international awards. Particularly important both from a history and postal-history point of view, it presents many additions and updates.

In part centred on the Nineteenth century, “Vaccari magazine”, the prestigious six-monthly magazine of philately and postal history information, is accompanied by the analytical index with the articles published from the first issue of 1989 to 2008, a very useful bibliographic reference for scholars and lovers. The magazine has become a “collection” item and back issues get incredible results at the auctions.

In the series “Meeting History”, the fourth volume, “Caproni nella prima guerra mondiale” by Rosario Abate and Giorgio Apostolo. This work, published for the first time in 1970, is now available in this new edition. The book retraces the history of the “strategic bomber” and gives a wide sweeping view of the events through new photographs.

The “History Bookshop”, the catalogue specialized in history and military history, aviation, navy, uniforms, weapons and tanks, has more than doubled when compared to the first one of three years ago. At present, it boasts 1200 titles by 115 publishers, great names in the Italian publishing world with their history and military-history collections. A wide space is given to the titles relevant to Risorgimento and the 150 years of a unified Italy. Among the new entries the “big ones” such as Einaudi, Mondadori, Rizzoli, which supplement those already in the catalogue like Mursia, Il Mulino, Laterza, and many more.

These catalogues are continually updated on the site with new works and only on the site you can find special deals, end-of-season sales and interesting titles throughout the year. In “Vaccari news - philately in real time”, the daily web-magazine, several news are relevant to books, catalogues, newspapers and magazines.
